LOCAL COUNTRY BAND ACES UP GETS A RECORD DEAL AND LAUNCHES THEIR DEBUT RELEASE BACKYARD SUPERSTARS

WEST COAST TOUR BEGINS IN MARCH

(Seattle, WA) Local country band Aces Up just signed with Nashville based record label Exact Records. They are set to release their debut CD BACKYARD SUPERSTARS March 5, 2011 with a West Coast tour to begin immediately following. BACKYARD SUPERSTARS was recorded at the world renowned Sound Stage recording studio in Nashville. The release includes 11 original tracks that feature a blend of rocking country rhythms, lyrical genius and tender melodies.

"Country music tells a story and provides a connection between the music and its fans. Aces Up gets that and BACKYARD SUPERSTARS creates a connection that goes straight for your heart," said Fitz host of the Fitz in the Morning show on 100.7 The Wolf (Seattle) and 95.7 The Wolf (San Francisco).

The Aces Up CD Release Show will be held March 5, 2011 at The Varsity Grill Ballroom in Tacoma, WA. Show starts at 7:00pm and tickets are available at www.brownpapertickets.com. Ticket price is $20 and includes an Aces Up BACKYARD SUPERSTARS CD. Aces Up will perform songs from the debut release with Zach Hinson and Andy Shofner and the Ruckus opening the show.

BACKYARD SUPERSTARS will be available for purchase at www.amazon.com, iTunes, Napstar, Rhapsody and also at www.exactrecords.com beginning March 5.

About Aces Up:

Aces Up music is a unique blend of blue collar country and the sounds of the famous Seattle rock scene. This Enumclaw based band consists of four members – Tyler Adams (lead guitar and vocals) and his brother Jason Adams (rhythm guitar), Josh Olsen (bass guitar and vocals) and Nick Platter (drums). They create hard hitting, boot stomping, feel good country music that tells a story and evokes real emotion. In addition to receiving national radio airplay, Aces Up has shared the stage with country music artists such as Gretchen Wilson, Jake Owen, The Band Perry, Uncle Kracker, Jack Ingram, Steve Holy, Emerson Drive, and many more. About Exact Records:

Exact Records was founded in 2000 by Jonathan Kingham, a veteran songwriter, producer and musician. His vision was to help artists make great records that could compete with major label releases, but with budgets that would allow artists to not only survive but thrive. By operating efficiently and keeping expenses in check by utilizing an in-house studio (The Track Shack), artists are offered a fair and equitable deal. Artists that are willing to work hard are able to turn a profit on their albums in a relatively short period of time.

Exact Records focuses on artist and song development to ensure great songs that are in line with the artist's vision, and with operations in Nashville and Seattle the catalog today includes Jazz, Country, R&B and Pop/Americana releases. For more information, please visit www.exactrecords.com.
